and Triambakeswara respectively had been stolen. The Dy Comr directed the Amildar to intimate the dates on which the thefts took place and also the action taken regarding the recovery of the stolen property. In his ittilla ~~of~~ the Amildar dy 11/16-4-07 reported that the thefts took place ~~on~~ between the afternoon of the 5th Decr 1906 & the afternoon of the 6th Decr 1906 in the Mulasthaneswara temple, and between the 17th Decr 06 & 23rd Decr 1906 in the other temple and that the matter was under police investigation. It is usual to report such cases to Govt as soon as the thefts take place, but in this case no such preliminary report seems to have been made to Govt at all. After keeping the papers in the Dy comrs office for 5½ yrs the Amildar was asked on 14-11-12 to report the result of the Police investigation. The Amildar then stated that ~~it~~ both the cases are reported by the police to have been struck off ~~off by the police~~ in Jany 1909.
